

Namaste Poem

Written by residents from Azalea Court
with the help of John Killick

It seemed to be about sitting quietly.
I think it was rather good.
It's a change from the noisy things
we need to get away from.

It's nice and cosy, isn't it?
That we can sit here in peace and quiet
and hopefully be safe.
I like the speciality.

We had some fun today,
especially the bubbles.
We do get lots of laughter,
and I join in.

The people who run it
have obviously created
an interesting situation.
it does seem to work.
